

ABSENTEE BALLOT

If you are an elector who falls under any of the following categories and who will be out of Puerto Rico on Sunday, June 1, 2008, you have the right to apply for voting by means of the Absentee Ballot.

a) Members of the United States Armed Forces of Puerto Rico National Guard on military duty in posts outside of Puerto Rico.

b) Those studying outside of Puerto Rico in an educational institution duly certified by the competent authorities of the country where the institution is located.

c) Those subject to a contract negotiated by the Puerto Rico Department of Labor to work in the Agriculture Job Programs outside of Puerto Rico and who would be working on Sunday, June 1, 2008.

d) Those assigned outside of Puerto Rico on diplomatic service duty or foreign aid of the Government of the United States of America or on a personnel exchange program between the Government of Puerto Rico and foreign government.

e) Spouses and children or dependent relatives of the voter who may fall under any of the four groups described above and who constitute his/her immediate family group living under the same roof with the voter, as long as they fulfill the requisites to be voters under the Law.

f) Commercial airline crews and merchant marines that would be working outside of Puerto Rico on Sunday, June 1, 2008.

Furthermore, any relative of a voter who falls under these categories may request the application form, which must be filled and signed by the voter itself and sent back to the Commission on or before Friday, May 2, 2008.

Application forms are available at your Permanent Registration Board or at the Absentee Ballot Administration Board, PO Box 366220, San Juan, PR 00919-5552;

Remember that the time to file for Absentee Ballot expires on Friday, May 2, 2008.
