The Proposer agrees, acknowledges, and certifies:

- Having read the bidding specifications, including its annexes, amendments and notifications, which form an integral part thereof, certifying by submitting their proposal the understanding and acceptance of each of the clauses contained therein.
- Having read the instructions, terms and conditions included in the bidding document, certifying the understanding and acceptance of these by submitting the proposal.

- Having received and read all the answers to the questions, if any, from the proposers summarized in the Request for Clarification document.
- That the information provided in the proposal has been reviewed for accuracy and that it is complete.
- That there are no facts or circumstances that could give rise to an apparent, potential or real, organizational or personal conflict of interest for the proposer, its personnel or its subcontractors, with respect to this bid, with the Puerto Rico State Elections Commission (CEE, by its Spanish acronym) or with the Government of Puerto Rico.
- That the proposal submitted is genuine, true, and not collusive or fraudulent. Furthermore, that the proposer has not colluded, conspired, or agreed, directly or indirectly, with any other proposer or any other person to make a false proposal or to refrain from submitting a proposal.
- The proposer authorizes the CEE to verify, corroborate and validate, by any means, the information that forms part of the proposal, and to request additional information from its clients or third parties (whether they were included by the proposer as a reference) to corroborate the information provided by the proposer.
- That the proposer will be the main contractor for all stages, and that any other participant will be designated and notified as a subcontractor.
- The proposal will remain valid until the bidding process is completed and the corresponding determination is issued by the CEE.

Certification:

I, _____, hereby CONFIRM AND CERTIFY that I am authorized to sign this proposal and to commit the proposer with regard to the price, resources, and services described in this proposal. I also certify that I acknowledge and accept the statements detailed above, as well as my obligation to comply with all requirements, terms, and conditions during the bidding process and throughout the term of any contract that may be awarded.
